loewe contemporary is delighted to announce its participation in the Concrete and Glass Festival with an exhibition showcasing ten ambitious young artists working in the UK.

The exhibition has as its emphasis current artists' practice, often laborious and exquisite in a wide range of media from Ruth Claxton's adapted found postcards to Boo Ritson's photographs of thickly painted people. Materials used include tyco track, icing sugar, plaster, wood, paper, porcelain, video and paint.

Curated by Catherine Loewe in association with Flora Fairbairn.

Premiering across the 2nd and 3rd of October 2008, Concrete and Glass is a unique event showcasing some of the best in music and contemporary art. The first of its style and scale to hit London Concrete and Glass is a celebration of contemporary culture, fusing the realms of music and art in Shoreditch and taking the creative hub of London's East End as its inspiration.

Concrete and Glass partners: Time Out, Rough Trade East, Eat Your Own Ears, Whitechapel Gallery, Contemporary Art Society, Drowned In Sound, The Stool Pigeon, Flora Fairbairn Projects, Tower Hamlets Council, Hackney Council, Whitechapel Gallery and its Time Out First Thursdays.
